

OnClientBrowserCreated

This event is triggered when the CEF browser instance has been created. If you want to load a specific website right after creating the browser (using `createBrowser` or `guiCreateBrowser`), this event will be the convenient place.

Note: Calling `loadBrowserURL` right after `createBrowser` will not work normally due to the nature of the asynchronous browser interface.

Parameters

No parameters.

Source

The browser element.