GetNearClipDistance

This function gets the distance from the camera at which the world starts rendering. For more information about this please refer to setNearClipDistance.

Syntax

```
float getNearClipDistance ( )
```

Returns

This function returns a float containing the actual near clip distance.