GetFogDistance

This function will tell you what is the current fog render distance.

> Note: The function will return false server-side if fog distance has not been set before the function is called.

Syntax

```
float getFogDistance ( )
```

Returns

Returns a float with the current fog render distance, false if the operation could not be completed.